T. W. Wiley is visiting in our town again this week.

Will we have a Christmas entertainment?

Mr. Frank Pitts was in town last Sunday.

Mr. J. B. Lucas, with W. E. Hughes, is quite sick this week.

Judge J. D. Martin visited McNairy County this week.

We will give the COURIER from now until the close of 1886 for one dollar.

By all means let us have a Christmas entertainment in which all can engage.

It seems remarkable how DeFord & Morris can sell goods so cheap, but they are doing it all the same.

Let us give thanks and eat turkey to-day—if we can get it. Let us also remember the unfortunate poor.

Send in your subscription to the COURIER. One year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

Mr. McWatkins and Jim Nichols completed their term of imprisonment last Saturday and were released we hope to be law abiding citizens.

If you want a rubber stamp of any kind for marking business cards, note heads, or with indelible ink for clothing. Address, JOE M. STEWART, 237 Church Street, Nashville, Tenn.

Married, near Ladeu last Thursday, at the residence of Mr. Mal Pool, Miss Alice Pool to Mr. John Thacher. The COURIER heaped blessings and congratulations upon the happy pair.

We call attention to the card of W. A. Morrison in this issue. He is selling good machines, and we would advise parties in need of sewing machines to examine the Union and Household.

We are pleased to note the arrival of Mr. Jim Dodds last Thursday, a son of Mr. Bill Dodds, who has been west the past ten months. His return fully contradicts the recent report of his having been convicted of murder in Texas.

Our subscription list is swelling faster than we expected, but we would say that it will never get too full to suit us. We would be glad if the COURIER went into every family in this county, and many outside of it. Subscribe now and you will get the paper until the close of next year.

The first number of the Institute Orio, an eight page paper published in the interest of the Adamsville Male and Female Institute and edited by the Institute faculty is before us. It is a bright sheet with a editorial, and mechanical work well executed. We wish it a long and happy life.

In calling attention to our job work, we will say that we are prepared to do every thing in that line from a visiting card to a poster 24x36 inches, including note letter and bill heads, envelopes, all kinds of legal blanks, invitation and wedding cards. In fact, any thing you may want printed, can be done at this office.

To Our Readers.

We take pleasure in sending the COURIER to all who like to read it and are willing to pay for it, but we are unwilling to impose it upon people who do not want it, and we believe that we are still imposing it upon a few. We dropped a few names this week, and will drop more after this issue unless we receive instructions, accompanied with the cash, to continue the paper.

Poet Coles is with us again.

Savannah needs a good Baker, Tinner and Banker.

Apples? Yes; you can get the finest in the market at Cavender's.

Mrs. R. D. Morrow is visiting her father's family at Adamsville.

Dr. J. K. Barlow paid Martin's Mills a professional visit this week.

Ye editor's choice for a Christmas entertainment would be a good supper.

Over coats? Yes; wait until next week and get them from DeFord & Morris.

Miss Blanche Kendall has been quite sick for the past few days. She is up now.

Mr. W. T. Bell of Adamsville, was circulating among his many friends last Sunday.

M. H. Meeks and family returned home Tuesday from a few days' visit to Gen. Meeks in McNairy.

Mr. Edgar Cherry, who has been in Nashville for some time, returned home Monday on the Str. Cloud.

DeFord & Morris are offering special prices in clothing. It would pay you to get their prices before purchasing.

Miss Lizzie Dixon and sister Mrs. S. O. Campbell, arrived Monday from Newbern. They are the guests of Mrs. W. L. Dhran.

A Christmas entertainment could be gotten up at a small cost, and would afford much pleasure to both young and old. Let us have one.

Mrs. Nannie Broyles has rented and moved into the Mrs. Irwin house. Mrs. Welch and family and Miss Sue Irwin will board with her.

WANTED—To borrow $300. Will pay ten per cent for one year, and secure with real estate. Address E. this office.

County superintendent Will J. Watson will receive subscriptions to the Southwestern Journal of Education; price, $1. Every teacher should take it.

John H. East, Charlie East and John Foust engaged in a little row Sunday morning near the residence of the latter, which resulted in John H. East receiving a slight bruise on the arm, Charlie East receiving 52 small shot in his neck, arm and body, and John Foust disappearing from the premises.

To Our Correspondents.

In order to insure the publication of your communications you should have them reach this office by Monday. In writing observe the following rules: Write only on one side of the paper; Give news of a local nature; Use no impolite or slang phrases; Sign your real as well as your literary name, and, above all, write plainly, as we cannot spend time deciphering hieroglyphics.

Our Clubbing Rates.

We will give you the COURIER and any paper in following list for the amount opposite the name:

The work of Rev. J. T. Curry closed here Oct. 11, 1885. He is a young man of good ability, a close student, a faithful and loving pastor and in his ministrations he is earnest, tender and fearless in presentation and advocacy of the truth. That which was wrong he called wrong without any shuffling, bigging or apology. That he leaves us without enemies cannot truthfully be said, nor would it be to his credit were it so. The enemies he has made are such because of his devotion to the right, because of his Christian manliness. The good citizens of Winchester, of all denominations and of no denomination, will bid J. T. Curry God speed no matter under what skies his future may be cast. His truthful and incisive way of dealing with the liquor traffic and its advocates gave offense to some; but like a true man he heeded the voice of conscience and sought to please his Master, Jesus Christ. His energy, common sense, interests and teaching of his church make him an admirable and desirable pastor. We congratulate Savannah, Tenn., on her new appointment.—Normal Mirror, Winchester.

To "Silly Sally Sly."

Now, Silly Sally Sly, my dear,
 No doubt you have despaired
 Of ever hearing more. I fear
 Your triumph you've declared.
 But here I come again, fair friend,
 For "ye editor," so clever,
 Has said if I would verses send
 To print them he'd endeavor.
 I hate to judge, but yet Aunt T.
 A Judas is, I think,
 For Sally, now, 'twist you and me,
 She gave to you the wink.
 Before she ever wrote a line
 To defend the Nashville poet.
 To aid your cause was her design,
 Because her verses show it.
 He did not once her pity ask,
 Nor sigh for my protection.
 'Twas you I thought to bring to task
 For your unkind reflection.
 You say your Aunties should not scold,
 And hint they sound judgment lack,
 So I'll repeat a maxim old,
 "The pot but called the kettle black."

Of meddling much you say that we
 Like "old cronies," do our share.
 Perhaps we do. Won't you agree
 To see us treated fair?
 The seat of honor yours shall be,
 Because it is your due,
 And as President of our company
 You'll ne'er your choice rue.

Now, as you do not glasses wear,
 You cannot break them in a passion.
 But pray, my dear, don't pull your hair
 If I too thick should lay the lash on.
 You think 'T's pity' I ease his pain:
 Who said for the departed
 He'd never lift his head again
 But sigh on—broken hearted?
 Some pleasant hours he no doubt spent.
 The girls did friendship show him,
 And when they from Savannah went
 He wrote the little poem—
 Which was a compliment to them—
 His sad regrets expressing.
 That they had gone, then why condemn,
 And give him such a blessing?
 One statement here, I wish to make,
 Before I lay my pen aside,
 You great care should always take
 "Only on your own coach to ride."
 My spirit's bow-string shall not slack,
 And if you or Auntie T.
 Wish to "jaw" Jennima back,
 I will all attention be.

AUNT JENNIMA.

Clifton, Nov. 22, 1885.

To School Directors, Supervisors, Teachers and Every Body Interested in Educational Work.

There will be a meeting of the Director's Institute of Hardin County, in Savannah, January 1-2, 1886.

Every Director and Supervisor in the county is urged to attend.

Business of importance to every student, patron and teacher in the public schools of Hardin County, will be transacted: such as "how many hours to teach etc. It is asked and urged that the Supervisors of each District call a meeting of the Directors of their respective Districts to meet as early as December 19th, the object of which meeting shall be to see that the District shall be fully and fairly represented at the Institute.

Teachers are directly interested in all matters to be considered by the Institute, and the Directors specially request all teachers to attend.

Tax payers and parents are concerned about public schools and we ask them to attend.

Directors, the good work of reforming our public schools was begun by the step that makes sure uniformity in Text books. This step has been taken, but was only the first step. Let no district be unrepresented at the next meeting; let no Director be absent; let every body attend and have a good meeting, and give our work a boom.

Meet in College Hall, 9 A.M., Jan. 1, 1886.

E. D. MARTIN,
 Chairman Directors Institute.

H. P. WOOD,
 Secretary Directors Institute.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN

The most popular Weekly newspaper devoted to science, mechanics, engineering, discoveries, inventions and patents ever published. Every number illustrated with splendid engravings. Price, $3 a year. Do not let this opportunity pass. Send your order to MUNN & CO., Publishers, No. 23 Broadway, N. Y.

PATENTS.

The Patent Office has and have prepared more than One Hundred Thousand applications for patents in the United States, Canada, England, France, Germany and other foreign countries, prepared at short notice and on reasonable terms. Information as to obtaining patents cheerfully given without charge. Handbooks containing full particulars of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN are sent free to all persons who wish to be supplied with them. Address MUNN & CO., Office SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, 23 Broadway, New York.

WOOL.

I offer a splendid lot of about one thousand pounds of wool rolls at 45 cents a pound, in small quantities. Lower rates will be given on larger purchases. My wool cards are doing excellent work. Bring your wool and have it carded, for satisfaction is guaranteed in every particular. I want to buy all the unwashed wool I can get, and will make it to your interest to sell to me. My fall and winter stock of goods are beginning to come in. I will try to be in full blast by the first of October. Goods will be very low this fall, and hoping to share a liberal patronage, I am,

Notice for Non-Residents and for Parties Whose Residence is Unknown.

James H. Walker } In Chancery at vs. } Andrew J. Walker et als } Savannah, Tenn.

In this cause the bill which is sworn to contains the following statement: "James H. Walker, a citizen of McNairy County, Tennessee, complainant, vs.

The following named persons whose residences are unknown to complainant and against the heirs, legatees, devisees, personal representatives and executors of any who may be dead whose residences are likewise unknown, to wit: Jane C. Barnett, Mary E. Pickett, Annie M. Phillips who are supposed to reside in Maury county, Tennessee; Sarah N. Green and John B. Green, who are supposed to reside in Davidson county, Tennessee; Andrew L. Walker, who is supposed to reside in Missouri; Ellen Walker, John W. Walker, and S. P. Walker, who are supposed to be residents of Shelby county, Tennessee; Samuel P. Walker, a son of James Walker, who is now dead, L. Marshall Walker who is now dead, John B. Johnston, W. J. Polk, Evan Young, R. P. Webster, and R. C. Hemphill all of whom are supposed to be dead; John, Richard, and Persifer Banks, Ralph Wormley who is supposed to reside in Shelby county, Tennessee; C. H. Nicholson, or Calvin Nicholson, who is dead, R. Ferguson & Co., Moses Woodward, David Dalton, Pickett, Perkins & Co., Cornwall & Bro., R. Buchanan, E. M. Ryland & Co., and parties interested in the debts of what were known before the war of 1861 as the Union and State banks of Columbia Tennessee, and Wisconsin Ames, defendants."

All of said defendants whose residences are not indicated above are of unknown residence and are supposed to be non-residents of Tennessee, and the heirs, legatees, devisees, personal representatives, and executors of any who may be dead are of unknown residence and are likewise supposed to be non-residents of Tennessee.

And the bill further stating that the parties whose residences are indicated as being in Tennessee may not reside in the places indicated and if not their residences are unknown, and some of them may be dead, leaving unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, personal representatives and executors, and the bill praying for publication as to all the defendants and subpoena to answer for those who are supposed to be residents of Tennessee and for publication also as to them. It is therefore ordered by me that publication be made as to all said defendants for four successive weeks in the SAVANNAH COURIER, a newspaper published in Savannah, Tenn., commanding them to enter their appearance herein on or before the 1st Monday in January, 1886, and make defence to said bill, or the same will be set for ex parte as to them.
